

Globally
1 million children
are exploited by the commercial sex trade
each year

Film reaches the soul and creates lasting empathy.

Join us.

BITAHR

HUMAN RIGHTS & SEX TRAFFICKING
FILM FORUM 2010

DECEMBER 2 – 5 | CAMBRIDGE, MA

www.bitahrfilmforum.org

- In the US the average age of entry into the commercial sex trade is 13 years old
- 200,000 American children are at risk of being trafficked into the sex industry annually
- In redlight districts around the world the rate of HIV and AIDS infection among women and girls in prostitution is as high as 80%
- The global sex trafficking industry generates billions of dollars annually and is the fastest growing illicit trade in the world

Human Rights and Sex Trafficking: A Film Forum

Recognizing the need for greater public and academic awareness of sex trafficking, this forum will explore the power of film in effectuating a movement to combat commercial sexual exploitation and modern-day slavery.

This forum is the first of its kind, merging survivors, filmmakers, activists and academics in order to understand the phenomenon of sex trafficking on all levels, from theory to practical solutions and law.

December 2-5, 2010 | The Brattle Theatre in Cambridge, MA

Live performance by Tony-Award winning actress and humanitarian Sarah Jones followed by a cocktail hour with hors d'oeuvres by legendary chef Lydia Shire

Special guest appearances, book signings, panel discussions and more

Seven Feature-Length Documentaries, Four Innovative Shorts,
One Exclusive Preview

Anonymously Yours
Fatal Promises
Holy Ghetto
Playground

Red Leaves Falling
Redlight
Sands Of Silence
Sold In America

Sons And Daughters
The Day My God Died
The Selling Of Innocents
Very Young Girls

www.bitahrffilmforum.org

PRESENTED BY

CO-SPONSORED BY

